

APRIL 2019

ARCHITECTURE MONTH

AIA Photo Competition

The 2019 AIA Spokane Photography Competition will take place between April 1-April 20, with a deadline of April 20, 2019.

Competition Rules

The competition is open to anyone in the Eastern Washington area.

The subject matter must follow the theme of “What an Architect Does”. This may be a candid photo, a photo of a project (either in progress or completed), or some other creative portrayal of this theme.

Entries must have been created by, and be owned by, the entrant.

Entrants grant permission to the AIA to reproduce images for exhibitions, AIA publications and for promotional purposes. All reproductions will become the property of AIA Spokane. Should AIA Spokane use the photographs for an additional purpose, we will secure written permission from the entrant. All copyrights are retained by the entrant.

Submission

You must submit entries by posting to Instagram with the hashtag #aiaspokane and #whatanarchitectdoes

Eligibility

The competition is open to anyone 18 years of age or older. Entries submitted by ineligible individuals will not be processed.

Judges

Tony Roslund - Architecture Photographer

The decision of the judge(s) is final on all matters relating to the competition.

Judging will be based upon photo subject, adherence to theme, composition and Instagram “likes”.
